

CAPTURED SPION KOP AT A FEARFUL COST

Warren Drives Boers Out Of a Strong Position

MANY BRITISH LIVES PAID HEAVY FOR THE VICTORY

Gen. Joubert Made Desperate Efforts to Recapture the Stronghold—Gen. Warren Surprised the Boers on Tuesday Night—Gen. Woodgate Seriously Wounded in the Engagement—Boers Still Shelling Warren's New Position Fiercely—Joy in London Over the Report—The Relief of Ladysmith is Now More Practicable.

London, Jan. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—Fear and anxiety was suddenly turned into rejoicing in England by the receipt of a dispatch from Gen. Buller today saying that Gen. Warren had taken his objective point, Spion Kop. Gen. Buller's official message, dated Thursday at midnight, says:

"General Warren's troops on Tuesday evening occupied Spion Kop, surprising a small Boer garrison who fled. It has been held by us all day, though heavily attacked, especially by a most annoying shell fire.

"I fear our casualties are considerable and regret to inform you that Gen. Woodgate is seriously wounded.

"Gen. Warren, it is believed, has rendered the enemy's position untenable. The men are in splendid condition."

According to Gen. Buller's previous dispatch he believes Spion Kop, which Warren now holds, the key to the Boer position. With it taken, the relief of Ladysmith is rendered less hazardous. It gives the British high ground from which to shell the Boer position.

That the Boers realize the importance of the place is shown by their desperate efforts to retake it.

Gen. Buller's dispatch was at once forwarded to the Queen, Lord Salisbury and the other ministers.

Gen. Woodgate's Death Wound.
Cape Town, Jan. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—The silence is at last broken. A dispatch from Shearman's Camp on the Tugela river says that Warren has taken Spion Kop after heavy losses. Gen. Woodgate received his death wound in the battle. The entrance to Ladysmith is now ready.

Report From Boer Sources.
Berlin, Jan. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—A dispatch from Pretoria says that Gen. Warren's forces suffered defeat and great loss on Spion Kop.

Attack British in the Rear.
Spearman's Camp, Jan. 23.—[Special Cablegram]—The Boers from around Colenso advanced on the British camp at Chieveley today and getting back of the British opened an artillery on them. Capt. DeBougemont of the Light Horse was killed, six wounded and two missing.

WOMAN HAS A RIGHT TO QUIT.

Jury in Philadelphia Decides She Can Break Off an Engagement.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 25.—Before Judge Willbank in Common Pleas court No. 2 the jury in the case of Harry Snaffer, who sought to take $5,000 from Fannie Cahon, because she refused to keep her promise to marry him, returned a verdict in favor of the fair defendant, who is 22 years of age, while her jilted lover is 39.

The couple had only known each other a few weeks when the engagement was entered into, and everything went smoothly until within a week of the wedding day, when Fannie declared she smelled whisky on her lover's breath. She thereupon broke off the engagement.

The jury decided that the defendant had merely exercised what is generally conceded to be a woman's prerogative, viz., change her mind, and had a right to do so.

INSPECTOR WILLIAMS COMING

Is Making Tour of the State Looking For Factories Employing Children

State Factory Inspector J. J. Williams is making a tour of the state and has already caused the arrest of persons who employ boys under fourteen years of age. This is a violation of the state law. It is alleged that certain local manufacturers will do well to take warning as Mr. Williams is liable to come this way any day. At La Crosse he caused the arrest of Albert Hemlebon, foreman of the La Crosse Candy and Cracker factory, for employing two boys under fourteen years of age. He pleaded guilty and was given the minimum fine of $10.

FIRE DESTROYS TEN BUILDINGS

Two People Are Burned to Death and $300,000 Property Loss at Fredonia, N. Y.

Fredonia, N. Y., Jan. 25.—[Special Telegram]—Fire this morning destroyed ten buildings, including two hotels and a bank. Alice Hunter and an unknown man were burned to death. The loss is three hundred thousand dollars.

Frank Burper also perished in the flames, making three victims in all.

MORMONS TO MIGRATE AGAIN.

Buffalo Bill Negotiating with Them for a Transfer of Land.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 25.—Col. W. F. Cody ("Buffalo Bill"), who is at the head of the great irrigation enterprise in the Big Horn basin in Wyoming, and of a company constructing a canal which will water 200,000 acres of land, is negotiating the sale of this land, and the irrigation system with a number of leaders of the Mormon church for the settlement of a colony of that faith for $400,000. One successful settlement of Mormons has already been made in the Big Horn basin.

GERMAN KAISER'S MOTHER-IN-LAW

The Dowager Duchess of Schleswig-Holstein Died at Dresden, Germany, Today.

Dresden, Jan. 25.—[Special Cablegram]—The Dowager Duchess of Schleswig-Holstein, mother of the empress of Germany, died today. She had been critically ill for some time.

Wanted to See the Baby.

Some young women, according to a Philadelphia paper, noticed a foreign-looking man pushing a closed baby carriage. Their curiosity was aroused and one of them asked to see the baby that was so completely covered. The man hesitated but finally succumbed to the girls' glances, and, unbuttoning the apron, he disclosed a small, rotund gentleman, with mustache and Napoleon, quietly chewing an unlighted cigar. The girls were speechless with surprise and shame for having intruded on the man's privacy, although he was a tiny one, under three feet in length. He graciously pardoned the women as he stroked his mustache, and invited them to see him at the export exposition, where he has just arrived to be exhibited. Then, bidding them good-by, he ordered his attendant to continue with the daily ride.

English Wealth of Words.

The latest English dictionaries contain no less than 260,000 different words. Next in rank comes the German language with 80,000 words, and then come in succession the Italian with 35,000, the French with 30,000, and the Spanish with 20,000 words. Among the oriental languages the Arabic is the most copious, its vocabulary being even richer than that of the English language.

COLD WAVE IS DUE TONIGHT

Heavy Blizzard Is Raging in the Northwestern States

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A cold wave is sweeping in from the northwest and made its presence felt this morning, when the temperature went down to 15 degrees above zero. It was 44 degrees above last night, when the observation reports showed the fringe of the advancing wave to be creeping over western Minnesota. The mercury will drop with the setting of the sun, and tonight will be cold with the temperature ranging under 20 degrees. The frigid weather will endure until tomorrow night, when it will warm again, but the summer-like atmosphere of yesterday is not likely to return in a week.

The southwest wind yesterday at one time reached a gale of forty-eight miles an hour. All over the country the observers reported windstorm. A snowstorm has been running ahead of the cold wave and Chicago escaped it by the violence of the southwest wind driving it out of its course. It deflected from the northwest and passed eastward over Wisconsin, and last night all of the upper lake stations reported snow.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 25.—Snow began falling yesterday afternoon, and by night fell a blizzard was in full motion. The mercury also began falling and a cold wave is predicted. The railroads are preparing to cope with the first blockade of the winter.

INDIANA SMALLPOX SPREADS

Several Deaths Are Reported in Different Parts of the State

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.—Smallpox is gradually spreading over large parts of Indiana. Several deaths were reported today. One occurred in Mount Vernon and two in Washington county. Dr. N. D. Cox of Owen county reports that Denmark and Woodside, near the west line of Owen county, are "filled with smallpox" and that one case has appeared there in confluent form. The region, he says, has been exposed from Clay City. Active measures, however, have been taken, and the doctor hopes to stop the progress of the epidemic.

DEGRADATION OF DREYFUS

Steps to Prevent the Reopening of the Famous Case.

Paris, Jan. 25.—Under order of the government placards were today posted on the walls of the French barracks and public buildings announcing the formal degradation of Alfred Dreyfus. The placard is evidently the result of definite measures to prevent the reopening of the case, as the actual fact of the

GEN. SCHWAN BADLY DEFEATS THE INSURGENTS AT SANTIAGO

Engagement Occurred on January 20—Eighty-two Insurgents Killed and Many Wounded—One American Killed and Fourteen Wounded—Schwan Also Drives Filipinos Two Thousand Strong From a Good Position Back of Majajay.

Washington, Jan. 25.—[Special Telegram]—Gen. Otis today reported the defeat of the insurgent force at Santiago by Gen. Schwan's troops on January 20.

The engagement lasted two hours. Eighty-two insurgents were killed and a large number wounded. The American casualties were one killed and four teen wounded.

Two days later Gen. Schwan encountered about two thousand insurgents back of Majajay. The enemy was dislodged from its strong position and forced to retreat. The Thirtieth infantry and cavalry are in pursuit.

COAL STRIKE STILL CONTINUES

Every Day Marks Closing of More Factories in Austria and Bohemia

Vienna, Jan. 25.—The coal miners' strike still continues, and every day marks the closing of factories and the enforced idleness of hundreds of workmen, owing to the lack of fuel. The government has appointed a commission, which left today for Bohemia, to see if a settlement cannot be effected.

Fashionable Madison Wedding.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 25.—The most fashionable wedding of the season in Madison occurred at 7:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Janette Herrick Doyon, only daughter of Col. M. R. Doyon, was married to Edward Stillman Main. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. G. Updike in the Congregational church before a large gathering of Madison's first families.

Automatic Telescopes for Switzerland.

When the tourists begin to swarm into Switzerland next year they will be confronted at every turn, on every hill and point of vantage, on every hotel piazza boasting of a "view," with automatic telescopes. Last summer there were many telescopes scattered throughout the country, some of which were looked after by a boy or woman, who collected the fee, and some of which were automatic glasses, which opened on depositing two cents. A company is being formed in Berne, which will place its automatic telescopes all over Switzerland next spring.

Vienna Fashionable Style.

Vienna seems to be to the front of the race with Paris these days in the matter of fashions. The Vienna women have long been famed for their superb figures and chic gowning. PARIS BIDS FOR THE BOUT

Bids Asked for the Jeffries-Corbett Match March 15.

New York, Jan. 25.—Representatives of James J. Corbett and James J. Jeffries met last night and decided to set February 1 as the closing day for bids of clubs for the boxing contest March 15 for the championship of the world. Bids must be mailed, sealed, to Al Smith, at the Gilsey house, and will not be opened until 6 o'clock on the evening of February 1.

The Coney Island Athletic, Broadway, Utica, Buffalo and San Francisco clubs will all be active bidders for the bout. William A. Brady has received a proposition from the Paris hippodrome, offering a percentage with a guaranty of 125,000 francs for the contest to take place in Paris during the month of July or August, if it is possible to arrange with the men to postpone it until that date.

As both Corbett and Jeffries are anxious to have the bout take place on the date selected, it is probable that the Parisian offer will be overlooked.

EXPLODED A BOMB IN FRANCHISE CASE

NEW CHARGES MADE IN THE MILWAUKEE CONTEST.

Allegations Designed to Show a Conspiracy to Gain the Ends Desired By the Street Car Company—National Guardsmen Are in Session at Hotel Pfister.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 25.—William H. Timlin exploded a bomb in the Superior court yesterday afternoon when the Trontlage injunction suit was called on for a hearing on a motion on behalf of the Street Railway company to show cause why it should not be dissolved.

It came in the form of an amended complaint. The Paine injunction case had occupied the attention of the court up to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when it was taken under advisement by the court, as the Schwartzburg suit had been before it, and the Trontlage case was called.

Says Company Aided Rose.

The amended complaint charges on information and belief that the street railway company, in pursuance of a conspiracy, contributed to and aided in the election of David S. Rose as mayor, in April, 1898, and also to the election of a large number of the members of the board of aldermen for the purpose of securing the rights and privileges which is attempted to be given it under the proposed ordinance.

It traces the stages of the conferences between David S. Rose and the officers of the street railway company, and weaves them into the warp and woof of the alleged conspiracy. It also declares that Rose and the aldermen gave out the false statement that the company under its existing grants was entitled to charge 5 cents for carrying a passenger on its line until the expiration of its franchises in furtherance of this conspiracy; and that the statement that the company was not obliged to give out transfers was made by them with the same end in view.

WISCONSIN GUARDSMEN MEET

Annual Session at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee Opens

Milwaukee, Jan. 25.—The Wisconsin National Guard association began a three days' session at the Hotel Pfister at 10 o'clock this morning.

The convention opened with an address of welcome by General Charles King. Papers on military subjects were read by Major J. B. Whiting of Janesville; Major R. A. Richards of Sparta; Captain W. H. Hall of Oconto, and Captain Howard Greene of Milwaukee; while an officer of each command which served during the war, read a paper of reminiscences.

About one hundred officers are present, and the meetings promise to be of a highly interesting character. Special subjects to be discussed are "General Suggestions For Bringing the Standard of the National Guard Closer to That of the Regular Army"; and "Improvement of General Average of Marksmanship."

Republican City Convention

The Republican City convention will be held on Monday, March 13, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The caucuses will be held on Friday, March 16, and the preliminary meetings will take place on Monday, March 12.

Ex-Gov. Peck Refuses to Run

A movement has been started by some members of the democratic party, who are not in sympathy with the high-handed tactics that have prevailed in the city administration, to run a candidate in opposition to Mayor Rose. During the past few days several calls have been made on ex-Gov. George W. Peck by young democrats who have urged him to consent to have his name used as a candidate for mayor, but Mr. Peck has declined to enter into the campaign.

Ask McKinley to Intervene

Brussels, Jan. 25.—The signatures to the national address prepared at a mass meeting, held here on Jan. 4, which asks President McKinley to intervene in the South African war, number nearly 100,000. Double that number is expected in a fortnight, when the address will be forwarded to Washington.

ROBERTS TO BE EXPELLED

Final Debate on the Committee Report is Going on Today

VOTE BEGINS AT 4:30

It is Very Probable He Will Be Rejected Without Being Sworn In.

SENATE AFTER INFORMATION FROM SECRETARY GAGE.

Supervisors of the Census of the Larger Cities Are in Washington Receiving Instructions—Senate Caucus Selects Officers to Succeed Bright and Cox—Davidson Says There is a Great Demand For a New Dairy Bill—Plans For the Cooperation of the Army and Navy in Case of War.

Washington, Jan. 25.—[Special Telegram]—Today will witness the expulsion of Roberts of Utah from the house of representatives. The voting on the reports presented by the investigating committee begins at four thirty o'clock. The final arguments began soon after the house convened this morning. Richardson (Dem., Tenn.) taking the floor in support of the minority report. Johnson (Dem., Va.) spoke from the same standpoint. Brosius (Rep. Pa.) addressed the house on behalf of the majority report.

There is no doubt but that the majority report rejecting him without being sworn in will be adopted.

Senate Adopts Resolutions.

The Senate today passed the resolution calling on the secretary of war for all reports and orders bearing upon mining troubles in the Coeur d'Alene district of Idaho.

The senate also passed a resolution requesting the secretary of war to furnish all information relative to custom duties received from Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines since their "seizure" by the United States.

Instruct Census Chiefs.

A meeting of the supervisors of the census of twenty-four of the largest cities of the United States was held today at the census office. This meeting was for the purpose of instructing the supervisors in certain details of their work, and in making them acquainted with the best methods of carrying out the plans of the census office.

To Succeed Bright and Cox.

The caucus of Republican senators has selected Daniel Ramsdel, of Indiana for sergeant-at-arms of the senate and former Republican Representative Charles G. Bennett of Brooklyn for secretary of the senate, to succeed Richard J. Bright of Indiana and W. B. Cox of North Carolina respectively, the present incumbents.

Demand For Dairy Bill

Representative Davidson has returned from New York, where he was in consultation with leading dairymen concerning his bill to increase the internal revenue tax on oleomargarine to ten cents. Mr. Davidson says the demand for the passage of this measure is very strong among representatives of the dairy interests of New York.

Aim to Perfect the Service

The secretary of the navy has written to the secretary of war suggesting that a class of army officers be sent to the naval war college at Newport, R. I., to co-operate with the navy in a course designed to bring about uniformity in the operations of army and navy in time of war.

WILL DRIVE OUT SOCIALISM

German Kaiser Begins War on the State Railway Employees

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The government, which has been attempting to stamp out socialism in the army, is now endeavoring to check its spread among the state railway employees. The Kaiser has declared that no man who holds a government position should be a member of the social democratic party. The most active socialists among railroad employees will be discharged at once, and if the lesson proves unavailing further discharges will follow.

Smallpox in Wisconsin.

Madison, Jan. 25.—Three cases of smallpox were reported to the state board of health today. The cases are in the country near Mauston, and are supposed to have been contracted from the young man who arrived there from the west with the disease, a short time ago. He was quarantined, but got away from his nurse and attended a church social, exposing a large number of people. Today's cases are the first results. They have all been quarantined.

THREE MEETINGS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

ECONOMIC LEAGUE HELD BANQUET AT HOTEL MYERS.

Forty Members Were Present Including Several Ladies—Subject During the Debate Was "Trusts"—Eastern Star Meeting at Masonic Hall—Gathering at Congregational Church.

Forty members of the Economic League were called to order last evening in the ordinary of the Hotel Myers by Supt. D. D. Mayne, who acted as leader of the meeting. At 6:45 o'clock a tempting banquet was in order and judging from the excellent report John son & Stevens had neglected nothing.

Following the banquet a general discussion followed on the subject: "Trusts and Monopolistic Combinations Intended to Monopolize Industries. Should They be Prohibited?"

Justice M. P. Richardson was the first speaker of the evening taking for his subject, "Trusts Are Unnecessary." George S. Parker followed with the subject, "Trusts Are the Natural Results of Industrial Conditions."

Jesse Earl talked entertainingly on "Trusts Are an Economic Evil."

Rev. Walter A. Hall entered deep into the subject, "The Evil Tendency of Trusts Socially."

Thomas O. Howe handled, "Trusts Are of Economic Value."

In the general discussion that followed it was decided that trusts are an injury to the country. The session throughout proved a most enjoyable and profitable one.

Meeting of Eastern Stars.

At Masonic hall last evening members of Janesville Chapter No. 69, Order Eastern Star held a pleasant social session. Mrs. E. F. Woods gave a select reading and Miss Fannie Russell and Col. E. O. Kimberley rendered vocal selections. Since the organization of the chapter Mrs. C. E. Ransom has kindly acted as the organist and for faithful services rendered Mrs. O. F. Nowlan, in behalf of the members of Janesville Chapter, presented Mrs. Ransom with a cut glass berry dish and a gold-lined berry spoon. A social time followed in the banquet hall.

Held Annual Banquet.

At the Congregational church parlors last evening members of the Young People's society held their annual banquet. There was a large attendance. The banquet table lacked for nothing in the way of good things to eat. Supper was served at 7 o'clock, Frank A. Spoon in- voking the blessing. A short and enjoyable program followed, the Rev. E. C. Denison acting as toastmaster. Miss Mary Wilcox rendered a solo which was followed by a recitation by Mrs. O. H. Brand. Rev. E. H. Ponce then made a short address in his customary way. Prof. Rowell sang a solo, Miss Jennie Spoon playing the accompaniment. Rev. A. C. Kempton, pastor of the Baptist church, and president of the State Christian Endeavor society, then spoke on the sentiment, "The Light That Shines Farthest Shines Brightest at Home."

RUNNER DEALERS IN DESPAIR

Open Winter Makes Them Impatient at Weather Man

From time immemorial there has been a January thaw sometime during the month, and this particular one seems to be no exception to the rule, unless perhaps from the fact that it is largely nothing else but thaw.

Local dealers in sleighs and cutters have evinced their disgust by offering to almost give these articles away. It seems to have been a case of misplaced confidence that induced these dealers in sleighs to stock up heavily without being given an opportunity to unload.

WAUKESHA VERSUS JANESVILLE

Interesting Basket Ball Game at High School Tomorrow Evening.

At the High school building tomorrow evening members of the Janesville and Waukesha High school teams will compete for honors in what promises to be a hard contested basket ball game. Both teams are well matched, and a large audience should greet the boys. One of the girls' societies of the High school will furnish a banquet for the members of the two teams at the close of the game.

THE KNOCKERS' CLUB.

Some Things Credited to Milwaukee That Have a Wider Application.

FROM THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL.

There is in every community a class of people who are everlastingly against everything any one undertakes. No public business is done to suit them. No semi-public affairs are ever rightly managed, even when a good purpose is admitted, which is rare enough. They never plan anything themselves and are never known to carry out what is planned by others, save as their opposition can be made to give the movement strength and character. They are busy-bodies, destroyers. Tongue activity makes up amply for brain lassitude. They go about hearing things instead of studying them; seeing things, instead of observing them, and smell a scandal in public or private life everywhere save where it is.

It is worth a man's reputation, if not his character, to undertake aught of importance for the common good, for they will assault him as well as his project. Real men of affairs have become callous to their yawn and so often become more insensible to public opinion than they were before, through hardening themselves against the knockers. Anyone who says they do not know is a liar; one who says they are wrong is an ignoramus; he who disregards them is corrupt, and to disagree with them out and out argues the opponent to be covered by evil influences, corrupted at heart and wholly unregenerate. There is no good in any person or thing they oppose; and they oppose everything they cannot control to its ruin. The great, distinguishing characteristic is that they never originate a plan or purpose; they oppose.

In opposition, they muster up from the depths of the place where their brains ought to be, for contrast and abstraction, the musty or abandoned schemes they once valiantly fought. They hunt the records of the dreamers and the inefficient, they consult the small and the penurious, they dig up old grudges and dead animosities, they coax bigotry from its lair and clothe themselves in prejudice; all these they throw in the path of him who would advance public good or take control of affairs that good may come of it. They always fear, how dreadfully they fear, that someone will derive a little advantage or some reputation from these measures, in spite of their factious opposition. But they themselves never suffer in that way for they never inaugurate anything.

Milwaukee has its full share of such. The project of a carnival was a terrible shock to them. Any combination for business sets them wild. A new railroad into town makes their knees quake; the town is doing well enough and some of our streets may have to be used. A department store means ruin, but they trade there just the same. The street railway is prospering too well and spending too much money. Where does it all come from? Any addition to the city limits will make city expenses heavier, and who pays the taxes? The old bridge is good enough; it has stood the work for years. And so it goes with everything proposed. They then turn about and ask why this and that is not done and tell valiantly what they would do. But they do not do it and no one else wants to.

Now, all these knockers ought to form a club and have a club house. It would be a jolly crowd of brutes, breaching harness, clogs, hindrance, pessimists, growlers, fault-finders, mud slingers, cranks, ne'er-do-wells, grannies, decayed merchants and politicians suffocated in the burning, illipituan great men, curb-stone lawyers, potheuise literati, impractical and enthusiasts about nothing. But perhaps business will go on the freer while they are gathered in one place.

Milwaukee has its full share of these. Yet the city has grown. Factories come here, improvements are made, the city beautified and its credit steadily growing better. The carnival undertaking represents the growing spirit of enterprise.

Milwaukee is coming to comprehend itself in spite of the knockers' club. The solid workers, the business men of the city, and the men of brains and high impulse are beginning to have confidence in themselves and to measure the obstructionists at their real value. Milwaukee has suffered and is still suffering in reputation from the noise of these kickers, which first alarms and then disgusts. But the city will grow out of it and build up a real character in the wide community whose natural center it is. It is time the kickers were segregated and new life and confidence replanted in the affairs concerning the good of the city.

JOHNSON'S ELOQUENT PLEA

But It Did Not Save Him From the Rock County Jail

August Johnson of Beloit, is the latest prisoner at the Rock county jail. Johnson was arrested by Officer Whipple at Beloit on a charge of drunkenness, but he pleaded not guilty to the charge, and denied a trial.

The judge asked him if he persisted in his statement that he was not drunk. The prisoner answered: "Well, I had a drink or two, I won't deny that, but I was able to take care of myself, and don't need any assistance from this cop. If you call it drunk, though, I guess I was, and if I was I am guilty."

This remarkable speech ended the trial, and the judge assessed the usual $6.49, which the prisoner was unable to pay.

DOING A RUSHING BUSINESS

Isabel Manufacturing Company Receive Large Orders From Chicago

Such well known Chicago houses as Marshall Field & Company, Carson, Pirie, Scott & Company, The Fair, Mandel Brothers, and Siegel, Cooper & Co., are transacting business with the Isabel Manufacturing Company of this city. Large orders have been received of late from Chicago, and the local skirt and waist factory is now obliged to run over time to fill their orders. The far eastern territory will be covered by their traveling men.

WISCONSIN MEN IN ALASKA COMMAND

General George M. Randall and Major P. H. Ray to Have Charge of the Troops.

Through the promotion of Col. George M. Randall of the Eighth infantry to be a brigadier general of volunteers, and his assignment to the command of the department of Alaska, the military affairs of that important new department are placed in the hands of two experienced and capable Wisconsin men, Gen. Randall and Maj. P. Henry Ray, the latter a brother of Charles Ray of this city, says The Milwaukee Journal.

Gen. Randall was a resident of Janesville before the war and is still looked upon as a Janesville man. He served with the Fourteenth New York artillery in the civil war and was major of the regiment in the Petersburg campaign. When the war closed he was made captain in the Fourth regular infantry, he had reached the rank of brevet colonel in the volunteers. In 1869 he was transferred to the Twenty-third, Gen. Crook's regiment, and served in most of the Indian wars, notably in the Apache and Sioux campaigns.

Gen. Crook, known and loved by the old Indian fighters as the Gray Fox, called him "The bravest man I ever knew." He was made a brigadier general of volunteers at the beginning of the war with Spain. At the time of the appointment he was serving in Alaska and came home to accept it. He was mustered out of the volunteer service during the winter of 1898 and 1899, but was reappointed recently in order that he might have sufficient rank in his new department.

Gen. Randall's next ranking officer in his department is Maj. P. Henry Ray of Wisconsin, a man of vast experience and who, although he was a colonel of volunteers in the Spanish war, did not have rank sufficient to give him the command of so important a department.

The two Wisconsin officers commanding in Alaska, where the influx of miners and prospectors has been so great as to demand the erection of a special department, are both men of large experience and capability and are peculiarly fitted for the place.

WAREHOUSE NEARLY FINISHED

Imposing Frank Baines Tobacco Building About Ready at Madison

In the city of Madison out in the tobacco district, along East Wilson street, the latest acquisition to the leaf industry, is nearing completion. This is the imposing warehouse, 48 by 128 feet, two stories and basement, built by Frank Baines of Janesville. On his Madison warehouse the work that is being done, is confined principally to the basement, which is being filled to the depth of eight or ten inches with cinders preparatory to laying a heavy plank floor. All the sorting will be done in this room, as well as the packing, the upper floors being reserved for receiving and storing. With favorable weather, Mr. Baines expects to begin taking in tobacco Feb. 1, but scarcely hopes to commence sorting before the middle of next month. Fifty hands can be used to good advantage, and the warehouse will start out with that amount of help.

HE PRAISES THE BOERS.

American Newspaper Man Discusses South African Situation.

New York, Jan. 25.—Eugene Easton, the American newspaper man who has spent some time with the Boers, cables the Journal from Paris:

"I arrived here today from the Transvaal, where I was with the Boers until the battle of Colenso. It is impossible to get news out of the Transvaal except through English sources. It is impossible to get the truth out. The English censor will sometimes hold a cablegram for two weeks, and then notify you that he has not sent it. Sometimes the censor rewrites the dispatch and changes it altogether.

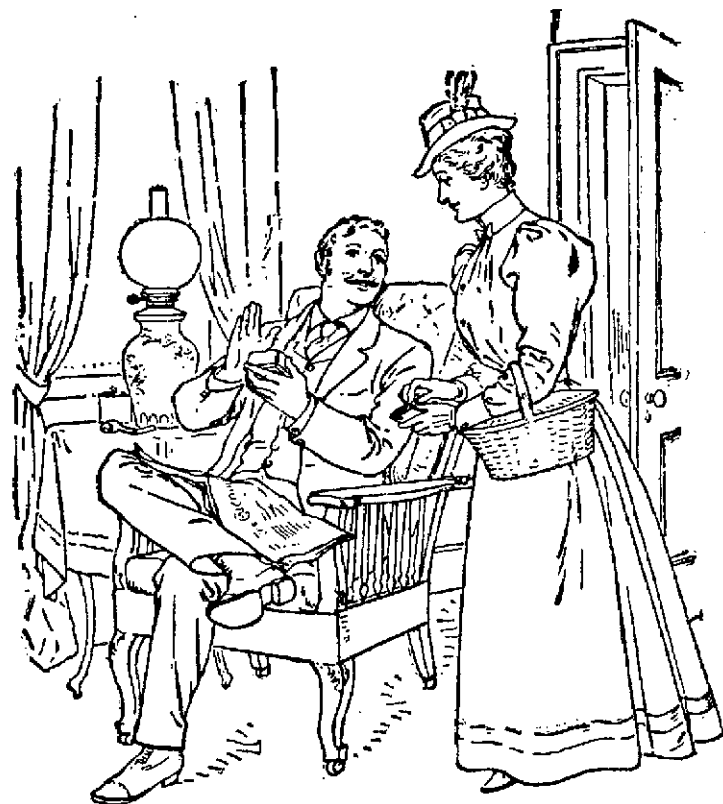

"The English claim that the Boers are getting munitions of war and food-stuffs is absurd. England is trying to explain her defeats by pretending that the rest of the world is helping the Boers. Every ship is closely watched. Nothing has got in to the Boers, and they do not need anything. The English have had the pick of every battlefield and of almost every position. It is not correct to say that the Boers have made merely a defensive campaign; the Boers have been outnumbered by the English in every campaign. British forces were in ridiculous majority; England had the flower of her army fairly and squarely beaten. Regiment after regiment at Dundee fled through the fog before the merest handful of Boer farmers. The disorder was indescribable. England is getting aid from the Kaffirs. For instance, Col. Baden-Powell armed some of them, gave them two Maxim guns and started them on a raid through the northwest of the Transvaal. English officers command these Kaffirs. The Boers have arms and ammunition enough to keep the war going indefinitely. They waste only about one-tenth the amount that the English waste."

Holland Boat Not to Be Bought.
Washington, Jan. 25.—The report of the board of construction declined to recommend the purchase of the submarine torpedo boat Holland. A minority report is submitted by Rear Admiral Philip Hichborn, chief constructor. Both reports favor the principle of the boat's construction, but the majority refused to sanction further dealings with Holland until satisfactory settlement is made for the sums advanced on account of the Plunger.

Brings Bodies from Manila.
San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 25.—The steamship City of Peking arrived from Manila Wednesday with the bodies of 156 soldiers who died in the Philippines. There is some doubt whether the board of health will allow the bodies to be landed and buried here, as the unfortunate men died of all manner of diseases, including small-pox and dangerous fevers.

Smallpox in Kansas and Oklahoma.
Wichita, Kas., Jan. 25.—Smallpox is sweeping over Kansas and Oklahoma. There are thousands of cases, many fatal. The Indians on the Ponca reservation in Oklahoma are dying by the score. However, physicians call the disease a light form of smallpox, or Cuban chicken-pox brought here by soldiers from Cuba. In northern Kansas the disease is dying out.

Sails for the Orient.
San Francisco, Jan. 25.—Rev. Francis E. Clark sailed for the Orient on the steamer China. He will attend conventions of Christian Endeavorers in China, Japan and Corea and then continue his journey through Siberia and Russia to London.

ANTHRACITE MINERS SECEDE.

Pennsylvania Delegates Threaten to Quit Joint Scale Conference.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.—The joint scale conference of operators and miners was almost broken up over the question of excluding all miners and operators outside of Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania and Ohio from representation in the conference.

Another exciting development was when Delegate Hays from the Pennsylvania anthracite district announced that he and his fellow-delegates would leave the convention and go home. He declared that while the Pennsylvania delegates represented the third largest district in the convention, they had been ignored persistently. Amendments to the constitution submitted by them had been smothered, and everything looking to their interests stifled.

Benjamin James, the organizer of the anthracite miners, in a speech, said the Pennsylvania delegates had come to the convention to rule or ruin. Efforts were made to dissuade the anthracite miners from their purpose, but without success. No progress was made on the scale, as the miners are not yet prepared to submit their demands.

Platoon of Tramps Terrorize Women.

Massillon, Ohio, Jan. 25.—Fifteen tramps arrived in Crystal Springs while the men were at work in the mines. They intimidated the women and children into furnishing them with food and clothing. After they had secured everything asked for they procured a keg of beer and held a carousal on the edge of the hamlet. The police of this city were notified, and officers at once set out for the place. Before they arrived, however, men had been summoned from the mines, and with sticks and stones had put the marauders to flight.

Big Steel Plant to Slight.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 25.—The incorporation at Columbus of the Fairport & Youngstown railroad is looked on by Cleveland Iron men as confirmation of the report published some weeks ago that a great steel plant to compete with the steel trusts is to be built at Fairport, the lake port near Palmesville, by John D. Rockefeller. The railroad is intended to pierce the coal fields of the Mahoning valley and will supply the steel plant with fuel.

Sword for Wainwright.

Washington, Jan. 25.—A sword was presented to Commander Richard Wainwright, who was captain of the Gloucester in the battle of Santiago, and who sunk the torpedo destroyers Pluton and Furor, as the gift of the citizens of the District of Columbia. The presentation took place at the Columbia theater. President McKinley and the members of the cabinet occupied one of the boxes.

Democratic Senators in Caucus.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The Democratic senators, at their first caucus since the administration's policy with respect to the new possessions has been at least partially defined, discussed a line of concerted action with respect to that policy when it shall come before the senate in the shape of proposed legislation.

Leprosy Priest from Havana.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 25.—The Rev. Father Mulhaney, the "leper priest" in charge of the Havana lazaretto, arrived from Cuba on his way to New Orleans, where he will investigate some suspicious cases. He has 500 leprosy cases in Havana and thinks the disease is increasing slowly.

Call on the President.

Washington, Jan. 25.—President McKinley was visited by the members of the national board of trade, now in annual session in this city. Former Lieut.-Gov. Stannard of Missouri, the chairman, addressed the president, outlining the desires and purposes of the board.

Power of Plants.

The lifting power of a growing plant is one of the most astonishing things in nature. A squash is able to raise 5,000 pounds by the mere force of expansion. If enough squashes were to be placed under Chicago's Masonic temple they could tip it over. Beans and acorns often lift heavy masses of earth in their struggles to reach the light. Mushrooms have displaced lagging stones in a number of instances. Scientists some time ago harnessed a squash in such a manner that it had to exert all its powers if it grew at all. The squash burst the harness and cheerfully kept on growing.

If You Have, the Statement of this Janesville Man Will Interest You.

Ever have a "Low down" pain in the back?

In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache.

It's caused by sick kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Janesville people endorse this. Read case of it.

Mr. Geo. Pratt, of 261 S. Main St., salesman at Brown Bros. Shoe store says: "I can guarantee Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney complaint. I was subject to it for several years, had a doctor treat me for quite awhile, and as long as I took the medicine I was helped, but as soon as I quit the trouble returned. I took other remedies, but without being benefited. Finally learning about Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at the People's Drug Co.'s store and took them. They cured me. My symptoms were mostly backache, the kidney secretions contained sediment and were too frequent in action. You are welcome to use my name as one who recommends Doan's Kidney Pills, and I shall be glad to speak a good word for them at all times."

CRANK NEWSPAPER SCHEME

People who want religious journals can get them in plenty, and the demand for newspapers can be supplied just as readily. If Rev. Mr. Sheldon runs the Topeka Capital long enough, he will learn that his paper costs too much to compete with the other religious publication, but will be too insipid to meet the requirements of the newspaper reading people. It will be in a class by itself, without competition, truly, but also without adequate support. The scheme may work for a short time, but after the novelty is worn off the general public will waste a little time in reading The Capital as they would in reading The Police Gazette. The popular newspaper must stand on popular ground. It must print the news, and cannot cater exclusively to radicals in either extreme. Its influence naturally will be elevating rather than the opposite, yet it cannot suppress legitimate news and live.

Rev. Mr. Sheldon will suppress all sporting, police, and other items that he deems unsuitable for publication. Mr. Plug Ugly would suppress all church and religious matter as well as the items the minister would throw out.

The progressive newspaper man stands in the position between these two extremes. He is neither goody goody, nor toughy-tough. He prints all the news that he can get. He suppresses only what he deems to be unsuitable or unimportant in his field. Foreign news, market reports, sporting news, church news and political news all go into separate departments. The "best stories," regardless of their character, are the most prominently displayed, and the headings all give the gist of the article that follows.

The Rev. Mr. Sheldon, therefore, does not have to publish a paper himself in order to ask the question "What Would Jesus Do?" He can ask himself as he reads, and read only what the answer tells him he should read. The news is before him and he is not compelled to read anything that he deems improper—he who pays his money can take his choice.

As a demonstration of the possibilities of what Rev. Mr. Sheldon is pleased to call "a Christian Newspaper," Mr. Sheldon's experiment will be a flat failure, because one week's trial will be no test, but as a novel business proposition and a good advertising scheme, the plan will doubtless be a winner for a short time.

Alas for frail women! She is deathly afraid of a mouse, and marvelously tender of heart. Yet one million five hundred and thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight is the precise number of birds estimated by the British consul in Venezuela to have been killed last year to provide cigarettes for ladies' hats!

The Porto Rico census is now complete. There are 957,000 people on the island. Ponce has a population of 56,000, while San Juan has 32,500 residents. All are satisfied with their lot and think their Uncle Samuel is a good and indulgent guardian.

A decision by the supreme court, as to the constitutionality of the act of the council in adopting a section of the uniform charter law would clear up the pavement tangle. As it is, many property owners refuse to take any action whatever in the matter.

One of Kentucky's congressmen is named June Gayle. His name certainly savors of summer breezes, but don't rile him, or you may have to face a raw March wind. You can't always tell about these Kentucky gentlemen.

Isaac Elwood, the DeKalb bar. wire fence millionaire, gave each of his five grown children a check for $100,000 on Christmas day. Still, some people will insist that there is no Santa Claus.

The Minnesota Bankers' Association will ask the regents of the Minnesota state university to establish a course in banking. The suggestion would appear to be practical, and is likely to be adopted.

Chicago's school teachers, in annual meeting assembled, declared war on "the tax dodging corporations." This well. Let the fight begin, and let it wage without interference, until it ends.

The Bryanites pay a high compliment to the intelligence of the American people when they think they can make the one-issue-for-the-west-and-another-for-the-east win out.

The gold men may give Bryan the cold shoulder, but Bryan returns the compliment with interest. Bryan is in control, and no gold men need apply.

A Chicago woman has forgotten her name. We always thought the divorcee had would end in some such complication sooner or later.

Owing to the open winter the annual failure of the Michigan peach crop may be expected any day.

In all probability the Rev. Mr. Sheldon will also be glad to quit when his week is up.

Of course you listed that midwinter fair premium today.

BRYAN LETS DOWN ON FREE SILVER PLACES TRUSTS FIRST IN HIS EASTERN SPEECH.

Populists May Nominate Bryan Before Democratic Convention is Held—Babcock Will Be Chairman Again—Judge Carter Will Run in Illinois—Boies Out Against Bryan.

New York, Jan. 25.—W. J. Bryan made a flying trip into Connecticut yesterday, delivering two speeches in the Nutmeg state, and then hastened back here to speak in Jersey City last night. He was greeted with enthusiasm at all places. Today he will go to Harrisburg to meet Pennsylvania's democratic leaders.

In Connecticut he addressed an audience of 1,000 at Stamford and of twice that number at New Haven. His speech at Stamford was along familiar lines, but at New Haven he said that the "three great leading questions of the day are trusts, money and imperialism." "Which of them is paramount," he asked, "depends upon the point of view of the individual, and personally I do not care to specify." Many of his auditors thought he has specified sufficiently when he placed trusts first in naming them.

Would Nominate Bryan First—Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator Butler of North Carolina, the chairman of the People's party, will today issue a call for a meeting of the national committee at Lincoln, Neb. The date will be about the 15th or 20th of next month. The committee will decide upon the time and place for the next national convention. A majority of his committee, it is learned, favors holding the convention some time in May or early June in order that Mr. Bryan may be nominated before the democratic convention is held.

Babcock For Chairman.—Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—The joint caucus of the republicans of the senate and house congressional campaign committee and the Wisconsin members and other delegations will soon get together and choose their member of the congressional committee. It is certain that Representative Babcock will be re-elected and that he will again be chairman of the congressional committee.

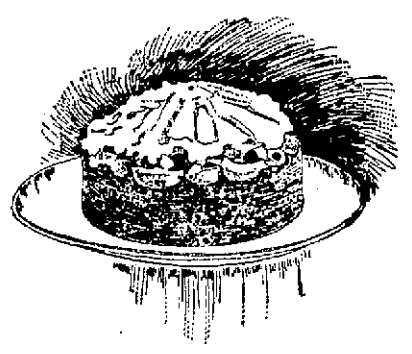

Judge Carter Will Run.—Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25.—Judge Orrin Carter of Chicago announced last night his candidacy for the republican nomination for the governor of Illinois.

Boies Out Against Bryan?—Waterloo, Iowa, Jan. 25.—Horace Boies as the democratic nominee for president is the suggestion of S. H. Bashor. Those who know the close relations existing between the two men regard the declaration as a practical announcement of his candidacy by Mr. Boies himself.

New York After the Convention.—Chicago, Ill., Jan. 25.—"New York wants the national democratic convention and will go after it," said Rudolph Guggenheimer, president of the city council of Greater New York, who arrived in Chicago today. "In my opinion, it would be good politics on the part of Mr. Bryan to have the convention held in New York. There is already $150,000 practically assured for the convention if it comes to New York."

Photographic Rock.—On the ranch of Paul Miller at Bradley Flat, near Hot Springs, S. D., is a ledge of rock which seems to possess all the properties of a photographic plate. When the rock is moist it will show after a thunder storm a clear photograph of the surrounding trees and bushes. Gradually pictures so taken seem to fade out, being renewed by each new thunder storm, though the same objects are not always reproduced. The rock seems to be a combination of flint and sandstone and is of a dirty red color.

Peach Gateau.
Have a sponge cake baked in a round tin; cut out a piece from the center, leaving the walls an inch thick on the sides and half an inch thick on the bottom. Pare and slice about two dozen peaches, mix with powdered sugar and with them fill in the open space in the cake. Beat one pint of cream until stiff and half a cupful of powdered sugar and half a teaspoonful of vanilla extract and spread above the peaches. Such are the Boston Cooking School Magazine's instructions accompanying the illustration here reproduced of peach gateau.

The Progress of Siberia.
The Russian government is, says Engineering, with great energy and foresight, pursuing its work in various directions, for the purpose of assisting the progress of Siberia. The fact that Siberia will in all probability cease to be the dreaded home of criminals is only one link in this chain—only one of many efforts for introducing European culture into the vast possessions of the czar in Northern and Central Asia. Siberia has hitherto known nothing, or in any case very little, of customs and tariffs, and goods from all parts of the world have been imported into Siberia free of duty. This will now be altered, and Siberia will henceforward have its closely guarded tariff frontier, both along the coasts of the Pacific ocean and on the inland frontier. Siberia will have its own customs department; the finance ministry at St. Petersburg will act to a great extent quite independently.

CIRCUIT COURT BUSINESS BRISK

WILCOX ESTATE AGAIN BEFORE JUDGE DUNWIDDIE.

Mrs. Pease Interested in the Foreclosure of a Mortgage Owned By the Wilcox Estate—Minor Heirs of the Hudson Estate Sue to Recover Cash.

In the circuit court this morning before Judge B. F. Dunwiddie in the case of Mrs. Cornelia M. R. Pease vs. Mary Wilcox et al the motion to strike out the demurrer of the defendant, Maggie J. Huntress, was stricken out and twenty days was given to answer. The case involves the foreclosure of a mortgage on the Wilcox estate.

The plaintiff appeared by Rager & Rager, the defendant being represented by E. D. McGowan and Angie J. King. Mrs. Huntress was represented by Whitehead & Matheson.

In the case of Mary J. Huntress vs. the estate of Chas. T. Wilcox the case was set for Monday next as was also the case of Mary J. Huntress vs. Mary Wilcox.

This afternoon the court was occupied in hearing the case of the minor heirs of the late Thomas Hutson of Edgerton, against Andrew Jensen and Robert Atlessey of Edgerton.

Mrs. Hutson was appointed guardian of her children and the defendants in the action were sureties on her bond. The children, now allege that their mother, as their guardian wasted her husband's life insurance money, a portion of which would have come to them. Mrs. Hutson is dead and the children now sue the bondsmen for $5,000.

MEXICAN AIR TOO LIGHT

So Writes Sheriff W. H. Appleby From Springfield, New Mexico

Sheriff W. H. Appleby and Frank Mount, who left Janesville a few days ago for New Mexico to purchase a ranch, write from Springfield, N. M., of their safe arrival. In speaking of the Mexican climate Sheriff Appleby writes that the air is too light and that he was completely fatigued after running a block. From Springfield the local party expected to travel forty miles into the country on horseback. It is at this point that they intend to look at a certain ranch with the idea of purchasing.

Buffalo Intelligence.

New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch: A big bull buffalo had an injured leg, and it was operated on with cocaine and antiseptics, a few days ago. It was not an easy task for the veterinary surgeons, because a buffalo is a powerful animal, and he does not like any one to take liberties with him. But the operation was performed and the buffalo evidently felt better after it. Now the great creature goes willingly to the side of his cage when the surgeons approach. He knows them and remembers that they relieved him, and there is no sign of anything but pleasure on his part when he sees them.

TO ISSUE NEW MAP OF ROCK COUNTY

W. W. HIXSON & CO. ARE NOW AT WORK ON DRAWINGS.

It Will Be Complete in All Details and Will Fill a Long Felt Need As No Such Work Has Been Issued For Many Years—Each Issue Will Cost Six Dollars.

A new wall map of Rock county is soon to be placed upon the market. The work is now being done by W. W. Hixson & Co., a firm that has been in the map making business for over fourteen years.

The map will be 42x47 inches, mounted on cloth and colored by townships. The county will be represented on the scale of 1 1/2 inches to the mile and show the location of streams, lakes, cities, villages, schoolhouses, churches, townhouses and residences, public roads and railroads; also locating the farms, giving the number of acres and the name of the present owners, wherever it is possible to do so.

The drawings will be verified by personal canvass of the towns, after the drafts are made and the map will be as accurate as it is possible to make one.

Such a map has been long needed. It should hang in every school house and business place in the county, and will also be of great value to farmers and citizens generally.

Messrs. Hixson & Co. have published maps of Waukesha, Racine, Kenosha, Outagamie, and other Wisconsin counties, and have worked extensively in other states. Their work has been first class.

The price of the map will be $6, which is a very reasonable charge, considering the character and magnitude of the work necessary to procure it. It will be sold by subscription, and canvassers will soon start out. The work will be ready for delivery in a short time. People who wish may send orders to W. W. Hixson & Co. in care of this office, or give them to Mr. Hixson's agents when they call. Payment will be made on delivery.

MCQUADE STRUCK BY TRAIN

His Injuries May Prove Fatal the Attending Physician Says.

James McQuade of this city, is now lingering between life and death at the home of his brother, Patrick McQuade 162 North Main street. Near the east side approach of the upper railroad Mr. McQuade was struck by a train about 11 o'clock last evening.

His body was badly bruised, bones were broken and his injuries internal are serious. Mr. McQuade was attended by Dr. Joe Whiting, who was assisted by W. E. Evenson.

Today the injured man stated that while attempting to step out of the way of a north bound train on the Milwaukee road he stepped on the Northwest corner tracks and was struck by a north bound train.

Mr. McQuade has been working for A. C. Kent and is a highly esteemed young man.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon his condition was most serious.

Early Days of Colorado Mining.

As illustrating the local conditions at the time of the commencement of operations by the pioneer smelter in Colorado, it may be stated that every single brick used in its construction cost $1, having to be brought by wagon about 600 miles from the nearest point on the Missouri river, and to that point by railroad from St. Louis; the iron cost 22 cents per pound; the pay of skilled labor was $3 per day and of common labor $4 per day, and the charge for smelting ranged from $23 to $45 per ton. There was no railroad nearer than the Missouri river, about 600 miles away; wagon transportation was high, as also were all the necessities of life. Moreover, the "matte," the product of the plant, in the absence of any local means of separating or refining, had to be hauled to the Missouri river in wagons, thence by railroad to New York, and thence to Swansea, Wales, where it was separated and the gold, silver and copper refined. Today there are nine smelting plants in Colorado. The aggregate daily capacity is 4,500 tons, and about 4,000 men are employed.—Engineering Magazine.

Snowstorm in a Tropical City.

Melbourne has recently had its first taste of a snowstorm and to the great majority of the citizens it was as much of a novelty as an earthquake. The fall was not particularly heavy, but young Melbourne found quite enough snow on the ground to enable it to enter with enthusiasm into the novel sport of snow-balling.—Melbourne News.

Distribution of the Moose.

The Field says the American elk, or moose, reaches as far south as 40 degrees north latitude, and inhabits all the forests from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The animal is found from Kenway and Alaska to Kotzebue sound; also along the Mackenzie river, and near the sources of the Elk river in the Rocky mountains is especially common. Although in the case of an animal inhabiting wide stretches of country, it is premature to speak of its extinction, yet "the case of the American bison should teach us how soon a numerously represented species may be wiped off from the face of the earth if once left to the tender mercies of so-called 'sportsmen' seized with a mania for 'big bags.'

HARD TO GET VEAL CALVES

Farmers Saving Them to Raise for Beef for Shipment.

During the lower prices of beef and of butter since the panic of 1893 the supply of beef cattle was allowed to fall off seriously. With the increased demand for beef the past two years prices rose and many cows which were sold for beef were not replaced in dairying. The supply of cattle for feeding fell short of the requirements. For three or four years there was not much difficulty in picking up young stock for feeding. Now Rock county farmers are forced to raise their own calves for this purpose, the state of the butter market for several months until lately making it an object to raise the calves rather than use the cows for the milk and butter supply.

MCARTHY WELL KNOWN HERE

Former Clown With the Burr Robbins Show Dies Suddenly in Chicago.

Charles McCarthy, who was a circus clown more than forty years ago and known as the first man to turn a double somersault, dropped dead last Tuesday night in Chicago. It is supposed death was due to heart disease.

McCarthy was 60 years of age. He was born in Utica, N. Y. His athletic feats attracted attention. He was a contemporary with Dan Rice and had been connected with nearly all the old time wagon shows. McCarthy has frequently appeared in Janesville and for some time traveled with the Burr Robbins circus.

FIVE DEGREES ABOVE ZERO

Cold Weather, Added by Strong Winds, Strike Janesville Today

Several local thermometers registered five above zero this morning. During the entire day the weather remained cold. A sharp northern wind made the cold all the more severe. This is truly unusual weather for the closing days of January. There has been no zero weather since the first of the month, and since the second day the average temperature has been 20.

Game Cock Worth $10,000.

Several hundred South Carolina raised game cocks are exported annually to Mexico, where cock fighting is the sport of the nation. These exported birds are not collected indiscriminately in the state, but are obtained from one man in Clay Hill, York county, who has made the raising of fighting cocks a life study. That he has succeeded by various courses and carrying out a system in producing the best birds is shown by the demand from Mexico for all he raises. Fancy prices are paid for the breed. One bird he sold to a Texan was entered in big matches in the Lone Star state, and after winning twenty-seven battles was bought by a Mexican for $10,000. He has been notified that his cock won a battle in the City of Mexico in which the stake was $10,000.

Bringing the Sea to London.

Another attempt is to be made to bring pure sea water within the reach of Londoners, says the London Telegraph. It is proposed to tap the channel at Lancing, in Sussex, whence the salt waves would be pumped to a level of nearly 500 feet at the top of Steyning hill. It will then flow by gravitation through the main aqueduct to Battersea, and thence across the Thames to Cromwell road, South Kensington, whence branches are to be laid for service in Paddington and Kensington. Mayfair, Marylebone and the Strand districts, and in Whitehall and Westminster, from a conduit at Charing Cross. It is also proposed to lay another branch main from Farringdon street to Shorelditch and along the Bethnal Green road to Victoria park. The builder hopes that the main object of this is to provide for sea water swimming baths in London, which would undoubtedly be an immense boon to the community.

A Famous Corset

"Cresco" is the name of this corset, and we control the sale of it for this section. Costs no more than old style corsets, and it cannot break at the waist line. One trial will convince you of its superior merits. You are invited to examine the Cresco—have it sent to you. There's comfort and economy in a Cresco—Can't break at the waist. A complete line of them will be found in our corset stock.

REV. A. C. KEMPTON APPEARED IN COURT

C. HERRMANN CHARGED WITH SELLING LIQUOR TO BOYS.

One of the Evils That the Baptist Divine Preached On—Sutherland & Nolan Will Defend Mr. Herrmann—Case May Be Heard By Jury Next Monday.

When the case against Charles Herrmann, charged with selling whisky to minors, was called in the municipal court this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. A. C. Kempton, pastor of the Baptist church, was in attendance to watch the proceedings.

Rev. Kempton in his series of sermons on "The Seven Sins of Janesville," dealt at length on the evil that liquor was doing in Janesville. He spoke on how minors were to be found in the saloons of our city.

This morning Rev. Kempton watched with deep interest the proceedings of the case, which resulted in an adjournment till next Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

When the case was called City Attorney F. C. Burpee appeared in behalf of the City of Janesville and T. S. Nolan represented Mr. Herrmann's interests. According to the complaint as filed by Chief of Police Hogan it is alleged that Mr. Herrmann sold liquor at his East Milwaukee street saloon to Allen Pierce and John Cornelius on January 18. Both these young men are under age. Mr. Herrmann denies the charge.

The case may be heard by a jury. Mr. Herrmann is landlord of the American House and is a man who bears a good reputation.

MONROE OFFICERS WERE HERE

Say That Plenty of Material is to be Found Here for the Militia.

Captain M. C. Durst and First Lieut. Arthur Musselman of the Monroe Rifles were in the city this morning being on their way to Milwaukee. Both were of the opinion that Janesville should have no trouble in forming a first class militia company. Captain Durst says he knows that plenty of good material is to be found in the Bower City and that such a company here would be a credit to the city and citizens.

PRESENT REGAL MODES.

DESIGNS FOR NEEDLEWORK.

Easy Home Methods For Enlarging and Transferring Them.

In this day of widespread art many pretty designs come in one way and another to the needleworker, who would gladly utilize them for embroidery purposes had she the knowledge necessary for enlarging and transferring them to various fabrics. As to these processes a writer in The Art Interchange advises as follows:

The most simple way to enlarge a design is to rule straight lines over its face at equal distances apart and cross these at right angles, thus forming squares over the entire drawing. Then rule an equal number of squares on paper large enough to make the design the required size, as many times larger as one wishes to make the drawing. It is fairly easy then to draw in the design on these large squares with the lines of the small ones as a guide to the positions of the various points of the design.

The matter of transferring is even more simple, especially on linen. The linen should be dampened and ironed with a very hot iron. Care should be taken to keep it perfectly straight. The quick ironing makes the surface glossy, and this will take a pencil nicely.

Fold the linen, if a square, once through the middle and again the other way, in order to locate the center. The drawing board should be placed on a table which stands in or near a window, with the light coming from the left and, as far as possible, from above. Over the board lay white paper and over this the design, face up. Locate a point on this which you wish to correspond with the center of the linen, or any corresponding point on both may be selected. Put a pin perpendicularly through the linen and send its point into the dot or relative point on the design, at the same time laying the linen over the design, glossy side up. The design will show through very plain on lawn and fairly well on heavy linen. Shade the surface with the left hand, thus bringing out design, until the linen can be placed as desired; then secure it by other pins placed perpendicularly through linen, paper and into the board. The black glass headed pins are the sort to use.

By more or less screening the light with the left hand and using a sharp pencil with the right the design can be traced on the smooth linen almost as readily as on paper. Use an H or No. 3 pencil. This will not rub in the after work. The drawing may be emphasized with a darker pencil or with a water color brush carrying cobalt.

When the fabric is too thick to allow of this simple tracing, follow the lines of the design on its reverse side with a soft pencil. Lay the design over the fabric—linen, silk or satin—secure firmly with pins and at the same time keep the paper from moving by holding the left hand upon it. Now rub the lines of the design with a smooth instrument—the handle of a pair of scissors, for instance. This will transfer the graphite to the linen, not in a very permanent way, however. It will be necessary to go over the light and not always perfectly complete impression thus made with a pencil or brush.

On a fabric of uneven surface or on wool the best quality of transfer paper will probably be the most satisfactory means to the amateur.

Broiled Chicken With Corn Fritters.

Split two spring chickens in half, dip them in beaten egg and then in fine bread crumbs, seasoned with salt and pepper; pour an ounce of melted butter over them and roast or broil for 18 minutes. Pour half a pint of cream sauce on a hot dish, place the chicken neatly on top and garnish with tiny rolls of broiled bacon and with corn fritters made as follows: Take four ears of fresh sweet corn, add to it two well beaten eggs, four ounces of flour and half a pint of milk and season with salt and pepper. Lightly butter a frying pan, pour the batter into it, in portions of a tablespoonful at a time; fry until the fritters are a delicate golden brown on both sides.

Bisque of Oysters—Mushroom Stuffing For Turkey—Squashes Temptingly Cooked and Served—Boiled Cider Apple Sauce.

Bisque of Oysters.—Heat one quart of oysters to the boiling point. Drain is also used to face the fronts. Here again the collar is a distinctively novel feature, as you may see by the sketch.

EVENING WRAP.

Another of the rich effects in which fashion abounds is shown in a long evening wrap of ivory duchesse satin, embroidered with broadtail and gold thread. It is trimmed with graduated flounces of ermine and lined throughout with the same fur, flushed with flounces of real lace and chiffon.

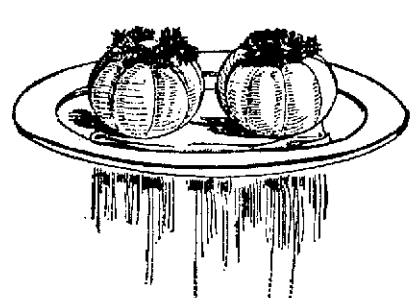

them through a fine sieve and strain over the puree the hot sauce. When ready to serve, dilute to the consistency desired with hot milk and cream. The turkey may be stuffed with a forcemeat made of bread and mushrooms, or a pound of mushroom caps (less if desired), peeled and sautéed in butter, may be placed in the body of the turkey during the last half hour of cooking. A piece of bread may close the opening of the turkey to keep in the flavor and odor of the mushrooms while cooking. The mushroom stems may be cooked with the giblets and used in the gravy.

Potato Stuffing For Roast Powl.—Mix together two cups of mashed potato, one cup of bread crumbs from the center of the loaf and from one-third to one-half a cup of melted butter. Season to taste with salt and pepper and sage if desired. Add one beaten egg.

Squash is usually boiled, but it is better when steamed or baked. When it is steamed or boiled, the shell, cut for the purpose and neatly trimmed before cooking, so that it may present an attractive appearance, may be used as a receptacle for the cooked vegetable. After removing the cooked pulp from the shell mash thoroughly, season with butter, salt and pepper and reheat in the shell. In the middle Atlantic states the variety shown in the half tone is found. The squash, being rather delicate in flavor, is very much better when baked. The Hubbard squash, as also other varieties, may be broken or cut into small pieces without removing the shell and then baked as potatoes.

Brussels sprouts and chestnuts are frequently served together. Cook the sprouts until tender and roast the nuts. To a quart of sprouts add a pint of nuts and serve in a thick cream sauce. The same combination, omitting the sauce and substituting a French dressing, gives an excellent salad to serve with broiled game. A few stoned olives or chopped truffles may be added.

Boiled Cider Apple Sauce.—Pare, quarter, core and wash enough sweet apples to fill a gallon porcelain kettle.

BAKED SQUASHES.

Add to them half a gallon of boiled cider, cover and let boil slowly, but constantly, until they are perfectly tender. Golden Sweets are one of the best varieties of apples used for this purpose.

Filling For Cranberry Pie.—Chop together one cup of cranberries and half a cup of raisins. Add one cup of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of flour, mixed together, then half a cup of cold water and a teaspoonful of vanilla. Bake with two crusts.

The Heart on the Ring.

The present is to be a "ring season" unsurpassed in fashion's annals. So decree the mysterious powers that be. And in no line are jewelers showing more beautiful novelties. Foremost as a new motif in rings is the heart. Fine, large diamonds are cut heart shaped and, showing almost no mounting, are set upon a plain gold ring. Magnificent opal hearts are framed with brilliant-cut diamonds. The favorite turquoise comes bravely into view in heart shape, and even the emerald is thus cut and lightly set in gold. A pink topaz heart makes an attractive ring—Jewelers' Circular.

Pear Salad.

Pears may be made into a salad which is particularly nice to serve with young ducks. The West India alligator pear is best, but any native pear not too ripe may be used. Peel the fruit and cut into thin slices crosswise. Take out the core and put the slices upon the crisp heart leaves of lettuce. A mayonnaise dressing is usually put over this salad, but a French dressing may be used. If desired, thin rings of onion may be scattered among the circles of pears.

Dr. Greene's NERVURA

BLOOD NERVE REMEDY.

RESTORES HEALTH, STRENGTH AND VIGOR.

Too Weak and Exhausted to Work.

Broken down in health, nervous, weak, sleepless, nervous, depressed and discouraged, the bread-winner of the family should seek the health, strength, vigor and power to work which Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy so surely gives.

Mrs. Charles Vandenburgh, 29 Washington Place, Newburgh, N. Y., says:

My husband suffered from weakness, debility and dyspepsia. He took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and found that it accomplished results which a good deal of doctoring in other quarters failed to reach. In fact it cured him entirely. He has recommended it to many friends who have also been greatly benefited by using it and find that it does all it is advertised to do, and more besides. My husband feels very grateful toward Dr. Greene, and is always glad of an opportunity to give publicity to the excellent merits of the doctor's wonderful discovery.

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has the confidence of the people as no other remedy has, because it is the prescription of a regular physician, Dr. Greene, 55 West 10th St., New York City, who has the largest practice and makes the most cures of the sick of any physician in the world, and who can be consulted without charge or expense by anybody, personally or by letter.

"Housework is hard work without Gold Dust"

Washing Dishes

To wash dishes in half the time, and do it well, follow this recipe: Always use hot water—not warm, but hot. It is best to use mops with china and glass, and to have a nice lather, instead of using soap use

Gold Dust Washing Powder

Dissolve a tablespoonful in the hot water and wash quickly; have plenty of nice, dry towels to wipe with; have a drainer that will allow the water to run off the dishes into receptacle below, when you will have highly polished glass and china.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

Mormon Remains Away from the House.

ABSENCE DETRACTS CURIOSITY

Discussion Almost Exclusively Confined to Legal and Constitutional Phases of His Disqualification to a Seat in Congress.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The absence of Mr. Roberts from the house seemed to detract from the general interest in the case involving his right to a seat. Although the galleries, public and reserved, early in the day were comfortably filled, the number of occupants later perceptibly dwindled.

Discussion was mostly confined to the legal and constitutional aspects of the case, the notable exception being the speech of Mr. Landis of Indiana, which attracted the most general attention of the session and secured an unusual ovation at the close. Mr. Landis, who signed the majority report, argued that Utah had violated her compact with the United States. There had been general rejoicing in the land in 1896, he said, when Utah had been admitted into the union. He went over the record of the apostles of the Mormon church to show that most of them were guilty of continued polygamous practices.

Some of his statements were sensational. He scored the church for its alleged faith, arousing great enthusiasm by his scathing denunciation. At times he convulsed the house with his sarcasm. Of the fifteen apostles of the church when the proclamation was issued, he said, eleven were open violators of the law and three had undoubtedly taken plural wives since it was promulgated.

In his peroration Mr. Landis protested against Roberts' admission in the name of the motherhood of the land and of the pitiful innocents doomed to the shame of illegitimacy. He got a whirlwind of applause when he sat down. The speech created a sensation.

Mr. Lacy (Iowa) argued in behalf of his proposition for the expulsion of Mr. Roberts without swearing him in. Mr. Miles (Ind.) and Mr. McPherson supported the majority resolution, while Mr. Wilson (Idaho), in whose state 30,000 Mormons reside, supported the minority report, in the belief that the house had no power to add to the requirements of eligibility fixed by the constitution.

The senate accomplished some routine business, in the course of which, every now and then, the ill-suppressed feeling of some of the senators boiled over on the Philippine question. Messrs. Spooner and Pettigrew having quite a spat, as, later on, did Messrs. Chandler and Tillman over some minor detail of the census report.

MORLEY ARRAYS GOVERNMENT.

War Could Have Been Avoided, He Says, but Must Now Be Fought.

London, Jan. 25.—Mr. John Morley, M. P., formerly chief secretary for Ireland, in a speech at Forfar, made his first public utterance since the outbreak of the war. His speech was a trenchant indictment of the government and his audience endorsed his statements with unexpected unanimity. Mr. Morley admitted that the Boer ultimatum made it necessary to vindicate the queen's authority in her dominions and said that Great Britain had no choice but to finish the war. Yet he believed that if the sensible, sober and honest people of Great Britain examined in detail the grievances of the uitlanders not one in a hundred would say that the question of righting these wrongs a little sooner or later was worth the sacrifice of a brave, chivalrous life like that of Gen. Wauchope or the cost of a single desolated home.

Sheldon's Paper in Demand.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 25.—Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, who has undertaken the issuance of a "modern Christian daily" edition of the Topeka Capital one week, is deluged with letters and telegrams of inquiries concerning the experiment. Among the dispatches received was one from New York containing an order for 10,000 copies of each issue during the week. Another order by telegraph asked for 5,000 lines of advertising space.

"Little" Glenn Indicted.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 25.—"Little" Glenn, the male impersonator arrested in Illinois several months ago at the instance of the father of a young woman to whom, while masquerading as a man, she had become engaged to be married, has been indicted by the grand jury for forgery on twelve counts.

Roman Law Remains Basic.

Havana, Jan. 25.—The commission for the reform of the laws held an informal meeting at the palace today. While certain principles of the English common law will be grafted on, and various Spanish excrescences are to be topped off, the ground work of the Roman law, to which the Cubans are accustomed, and which is suitable to them, will remain.

Former Minister Phelps Ill.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 25.—E. J.

Phelps, former minister to England, is ill with pneumonia at his residence here. His physicians announce that his condition is not yet serious.

Lieutenant Stockley Missing. Washington, Jan. 25.—Gen. Otis has carried the war department that Lieut. Stockley is missing.

OHIO FURNACE AND MILL.

Independent Iron Concerns to Join for Output and Product.

Canal Dover, Ohio, Jan. 25.—It is predicted here that the Reeves Iron company and the Dover Blast Furnace company, two of the biggest plants of their kind in the state, will consolidate and wage a fight for life against the trusts, which have made repeated overtures for mergers so far in vain.

If the two plants named should join the trust the city would lose about 2,000 of its population. It is accordingly intended that the Dover furnace shall extract the iron and hand it over to the steel plant to convert into billets. These billets would be given to the Reeves Iron company and fashioned into marketable product.

Open Trade in Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 25.—General Otis points that the western coast of Panay island is now open for trade and that the coast of Laguna de Bay and the neighboring sections of the country will also be open to unrestricted traffic by the end of the week. He also reports several minor engagements with the Filipinos in which the American arms met with the usual success. The enemy lost heavily and a large amount of arms and ammunition was captured.

Grave Robber's Victim Reburied.

Moline, Ill., Jan. 25.—The body of Mrs. Caspar Maurer, which was stolen from a grave at Rapids City Friday, will be buried in the grave from which it was taken. It is charged that the theft was made by an allegedly unknown student at the Keokuk Medical college.

Scarlet Fever Scans Joliet.

MYSTERY IN A MURDER.

A Dakota Farmer Kills a Friend and Himself.

IT IS THOUGHT HE WAS INSANE

Believed to Have Brooded Over Some Fancied Wrongs—Relations Between His Victim and Himself of the Friend-Not Character.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 25.—Particulars of the murder by County Commissioner M. H. Jacoby of Milton Nelson, near the border of Gregory county, and the suicide of the murderer, show the crime to have been a most mysterious one. The two men were warm friends, and the only explanation that can be offered is that the murderer committed the deed while temporarily insane.

Jacoby was on his way to attend a meeting of the board of which he was a member. En route he stopped at Nelson's and went to the cattle shed, where Nelson and his son Samuel were milking. He chatted pleasantly for a few moments, and then asked Nelson to accompany him to the county seat. This Nelson agreed to do as soon as he completed milking. After conversing for a short time longer the two men went behind the shed to look at some cattle. Returning to the front of the shed Jacoby drew a 38-caliber revolver from his pocket and sent a ball crashing through the head of his unsuspecting victim. Nelson fell without uttering a word, and his slayer turned and ran about fifty yards, clearing a barbed wire fence at a single bound. He stopped in stubble field, placed the still smoking revolver to his head and fired. The bullet entered behind and above the right ear, going through his head and emerging on the other side.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, expressing the belief that Jacoby was insane. Upon the body of the murderer and suicide were found $60 in money, a vial containing strychnine, and two sealed letters, one addressed to Sanford Parker and the other to James Myers, both members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Spencer, Neb., to which Jacoby belonged. The letters referred to some gossip concerning the writer's past life. They were dated Jan. 7.

From the date of the letters it is believed that Jacoby was laboring under a severe mental strain during the interval between writing the letters and the commission of his crime, but why he included Nelson's destruction will probably always remain a mystery. Nelson left a wife and five children, the eldest child being 12 years of age, while Jacoby, in addition to his wife, leaves four children.

Pirates Daring at Canton.

Hongkong, Jan. 25.—Emboldened by their recent success, pirates are again attempting to blackmail foreign firms in Canton. They have demanded 10,000 taels from the China Merchants' Steamship company and 5,000 taels each from the Reuter-Brockelmann company and the Deacon company, under threat of blowing up their offices with dynamite. The Chinese authorities are consulting with the several consuls regarding the matter. The German gunboat Itis has been summoned and is now anchored off Shanghai.

Auction of a Big Circus.

Ashtabula, Ohio, Jan. 25.—Large crowds witnessed the first day's auction of Walter L. Main's circus and menagerie. Prominent among the

"There's nothing half so sweet in life as love's young dream."

It was meant to be so when woman was ordained man's helpmeet. But it was never meant that love's dream should have so sad an awakening. It is due chiefly to ignorance that young women are so rudely awakened from the dream of love. They enter on the married state without physical or mental preparation. They are entirely unaware of the great physiological change suggested by the one word "marriage."

Every young woman should be prepared for that change. There should be no neglect of irregularities. The perfect health of the peculiarly womanly organs should be the daily care. Thousands of women who entered in marriage unprepared, and passed from irregularities to debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness, have been altogether and absolutely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This great medicine is not a cure-all, but a specific for the chronic diseases peculiar to women. It does one thing perfectly; it makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from chronic diseases and female weakness," writes Mrs. Allen A. Bobson, of 1125 Rodman Street, Philadelphia, Pa. "I had two doctors, who only relieved me for a time. My niece advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did, and have been highly benefited. I am now a strong woman, and can recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to all similarly afflicted."

showmen present were John Robinson, Jr., of Cincinnati; B. E. Wallace of Penn. Ind.; John Hamilton of Buffalo, N. Y.; D. Colvin of Chicago, and Welsh Bros. of Lancaster, Pa. Walter L. Main, who is one of the four largest showmen in America, is going out of business, at least for the present, on account of his health, and will travel in Europe.

Prairie Fire in Midwinter.

Helena, Mont., Jan. 25.—Something unprecedented in Montana, a prairie fire in midwinter, is raging in Teton county, in the northern part of the state. Owing to a lack of snow and constant winds, the flames spread rapidly when sparks from a ranch chimney set fire to the prairie near Clark Bros.' extensive sheep ranch. At last reports a stretch of land five miles long and two miles wide had been burned over, including a vast amount of hay and several ranch buildings.

Riot at a Piano Factory

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Twenty men made a demonstration Wednesday afternoon at the piano factory of Julius Bauer & Co., 1025 to 1035 Dunning street. Windows in the factory and in the neighboring houses were broken. The arrival of a wagon load of police ended the trouble. The demonstration is thought to have been made by former workmen in the factory, under the impression the plant is about to open with a new crew of workmen.

No Attention Paid to Mahab.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The proposition made through the New York Herald by the Filipino leader, Senor Mabini, for a civil commission to treat with the Filipinos, will not be considered by the administration until Aguinaldo surrenders, and in official circles the general disposition is to regard Mabini's request as another play for delay.

AUNT FANNY.

How a Little Old Maid Outtripped Her Younger Rivals.

"Oh, Aunt Fanny, how lovely! Are they for Laura, or for me?" The speaker was a pretty but rather insipid looking girl. "Where have you kept them hidden?"

"They were a keepsake from an old friend and have been among my treasures for 13 years, Bertha," was the reply.

"But now they are for me," said the young girl caressingly. "They will be so lovely for tomorrow evening, and I must look my best, for the girls will all don their most fascinating attire in honor of the occasion."

"Is it not rather marked to be so very anxious?" inquired her aunt. "To judge from what you have told me, this hero of yours may have any one in Silverdale for asking."

"Well, he won't know it," replied Bertha. "And, Aunt Fanny, he really is worth courting; he is so very rich."

"Is that all that is required, Bertha, in a husband?" said her aunt seriously. "Well, it is the main thing, anyhow, nowadays," replied Bertha. "But Lawrence Lane has more than riches. Lucy Harding always speaks of him as a 'true Christian gentleman.'"

"A true Christian gentleman!" Aunt Fanny repeated the phrase in a musing tone, while a soft light came into her dark eyes and a smile hovered over her lips.

The next evening Laura and Bertha, in fleecy, white robes, with blush roses in the hair, stood before the long mirror in the dressing room pointing.

In the meantime the gentle aunt, who for ten years had filled a mother's place to those her sister's children, waited in her own room for her nieces.

She was not beautiful, yet there was a charm in her sweet face and a music in her voice that were sought in vain in her more dashing nieces. As she waited her eyes rested upon a letter, discolored and worn, which had been long hidden under her treasured ornaments. And she read:

Dear Frances—Since you will not disobey your father and I cannot command the sum he demands to pay my late father's debts to him, we must part—part for a time only, for, though seas roll between us and we may not write, your heart and mine can never be wholly severed. Trust me, trust me, darling, for, though years may elapse, I will return, true to my pledge to you. Will you keep the little gold springs I ventured to offer on your birthday that something of mine may be yours? Heaven guard you and keep you from further sorrow. Till we meet, pray for Lawrence.

It was a brilliant party that Mrs. Haskins, the leader of fashion in Silverdale, gave to her returned nephew. He had left home struggling against fortune and depressed with a knowledge of his father's large debts.

No word had come to him, till a letter to his aunt had announced his return after 13 years' sojourn in Australia. All his father's debts were paid, and his lawyer spoke of large sums invested in various ways. So the result was the brilliant assemblage which Laura and Bertha were to honor and where that "little old maid," their aunt, was to appear in society after ten years' seclusion.

The hero of the evening had not appeared when the trio, under the escort of Mr. Leslie, Bertha's and Laura's father, entered, but soon a movement near the door announced his arrival: a tall, distinguished looking man of 35 or 36, with finished manners and well modulated voice—a man to notice in any circle, but now, with the glitter of his wealth, a man, Silverdale thought, to fall down before and worship.

He had greeted his hostess, had made nearly the circuit of the room, bowing to new friends, greeting with warm cordiality his old ones, when his eyes fell upon a golden car of wheat resting upon a broad braid of black hair. The light that sprang to his eyes, the smile upon his lips, carried such deep peace to one heart, gave one life of patient waiting such a new happiness, that the words of polite greeting fell upon ears that scarcely heard them.

No one else noted more than the quiet greeting of old friends; but two hearts were full of deep joy—rest after weary longing.

Some of the guests were invited by the returned Australian to a housewarming of the new mansion which was to be the future home of Lawrence Lane.

One week soon glided away. Aunt Fanny was very kind in helping to trim new peach colored silks for the sisters; but there was an odd smile on her lip when Lawrence Lane's matrimonial prospects were discussed.

A few days before the eventful night Aunt Fanny, to her nieces' surprise, went on a visit to some old friends.

The evening appointed for the housewarming came at last. Merry voices rang through the hall and rooms, gay footsteps flew from one beautiful apartment to another, till it was whispered that the revelers were invited to meet the mistress as well as the master of the mansion. The closed doors which shut off a small room from the long drawing room were eagerly watched as the guests assembled and no host came to welcome them.

At length they were opened, and the hero of the hour entered, with a small, white robed figure on his arm, and more than one cry of astonishment greeted "Frances Somers," and more than one ill-natured whisper was directed at Lawrence Lane's taste in choosing "that little old maid."—New York News.

Ridiculous Guns.

Although China is making rapid progress in the art of war, the introduction of railroads and other modern improvements, the government continues to manufacture the ridiculous "two men breech-loading jingals" that have been used by the soldiers of the Chinese empire ever since the invention of gunpowder.

The jingal is a curious weapon that looks more like a telescope than a gun. It is mounted upon a tripod six or eight feet high, so that it can be fired over the heads of the soldiers in the front ranks. The barrel is about nine feet long, the bore about 1½ inches in diameter, and the projectile can be either solid or a bunch of small shot tied up in a bag of thin rice paper. It has an effective range of from 200 to 300 yards only, and foreign officers who saw it in use in the late war with Japan say that it is no more to be feared than any other old-fashioned blunderbuss. It takes two men to load and fire it, and when it is dismounted they carry it on their shoulders like a piece of scolding.—Chicago Record.

A Detailed Map of Rock County . . .

Work is now in progress on a new wall map for Rock County. In size it will be 42x47 inches, mounted on cloth, and each township (of which there are twenty) will be neatly colored. The county will be represented on the scale of 1½ inches to the mile and will show the location of streams, lakes, cities, villages, school houses, churches, town houses and residences, public roads and railroads. It will also locate the farms, giving the number of acres and the name of the present owners wherever it is possible to do so. As fast as the drawings of the townships are completed they are verified so that the map will be as nearly correct as possible. The work will be of great value to business and professional men and farmers, and should find place in every school house in the county. The last wall map of the county was made a great many years ago, so that this new one will fill a long felt want.

The Price is $6.00.

Only enough of the Maps will be printed to fill orders. This fact should be borne in mind by those interested. Agents will begin the work of canvassing at once; orders may be given them and may also be sent to us in care of The Gazette office. If you will send in your name a representative will call and give more information if necessary.

The undersigned hereby orders W. W. HIXSON & CO. to publish and deliver to me or us . . . Map of Rock County, Wisconsin, for which I agree to pay W. W. HIXSON & CO., or agent, the sum of Six Dollars on delivery of said Map.

The Maps to be mounted on Cloth, neatly colored by townships. The county will be represented on the scale of 1½ inches to the mile and show the location of Streams, Villages, School Houses, Churches, Townhouses and Residences, Public Roads and Railroads; also, locating the Farms, giving the number of Acres and the name of the present owners, wherever it is possible to do so.

Must Change Convention Date.
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.—The republican state committee learned after adjournment that Tomlinson hall, where it was decided to hold the state convention May 16 and 17, has been secured for those dates by the state G. A. R. Letters were at once sent out to members asking for suggestions for new dates.

Kimberley Holding Its Own Well.
Modder River, Jan. 25.—A heliogram from Kimberley gives an account of a severe and well-directed Boer bombardment on Tuesday. There were no casualties, but there were a number of narrow escapes. All the white employees of the De Beers Mining company, numbering 6,000, have turned soldiers. They are receiving their usual wages from the company. The company is also employing 4,000 natives in road-making, the building of intrenchments, etc. The populace are well and cheerful. The authorities compel dealers to charge normal prices for necessities, but luxuries command famine prices.

Grave Charges Are Made.
Brussels, Jan. 25.—Grave charges are made in the press against the British by Dr. Ramsbottom of Bloomfontein, head of the Orange Free State ambulance at Modder river. He asserts that on Nov. 29, after the Modder river battle, he and his staff, with the wounded they were tending, were made prisoners of war by the English, despite their Red Cross badges and the fact that the Orange Free State is a signatory of the Geneva convention. The doctor asserts that he and his companions, the wounded included, were deprived of nourishment and conveyed in cattle trucks to Cape Town.

Petition McKinley to Intervene.
Brussels, Jan. 25.—The signatures to the national address prepared at a mass meeting, held here on Jan. 4, which asks President McKinley to intervene in the South African war, number nearly 100,000. Double that number is expected in a fortnight, when the address will be forwarded to Washington.

British Release Another German Ship.
Berlin, Jan. 25.—The Post says that the German steamer Hans Wagner, which was seized by the British and taken to Port Elizabeth, has been released. It adds that the British abandoned their intention to search the steamer's cargo.

Santiago's Dead at Rest.
Washington, Jan. 25.—Funeral services over the bodies of forty-six soldiers who died at Santiago during the Spanish war were held in Arlington National cemetery Wednesday. The president, in company with the secretary of war and the attorney-general, witnessed the ceremonies. A detachment of cavalry from Fort Meyer fired the military salute over the graves.
